SUITE

The Housing Project

Lead Partner: Santiago de Compostela (Spain)

The main objective of the SUITE network is to cooperate among partners to optimise a sustainable and affordable supply of housing and to assure social cohesion through social mix and suitable housing.

These issues bring up a major social challenge, namely inequality in access to housing. The challenge facing the public authorities is part of a wider problem of urban and social exclusion. Working for social and urban integration means implementing housing policies that guarantee housing that is not only affordable but also of good-quality and sustainable. This promotes the social inclusion of the populations and the urban integration of neighbourhoods and housing in cities.
