

URBACT University 2023

Study visits' offer

Building Sustainable Urban Farming Ecosystems

Find out more about sustainable food, urban farming and social enterprise on this visit to the Botildenborg urban farm and kitchen. Botildenborg is a sustainable farm that provides employment training for people outside of the labour market and supports the development of new entrepreneurship of urban farmers in Malmö.

Urban Farming

Social Inclusion

Entrepreneurship

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: Botildenborg - Västra Skrävlinge Kyrkoväg 12

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Rental bus

Additional information: At the end of visit, the rental bus will bring you back to Malmö Arena.

Bike tour of Malmö City Centre: promoting active mobility

Take the train into town and then join members of the City of Malmö's mobility team for a cycling tour of the city centre, looking at various initiatives to promote active mobility in the city. Cycling experience is necessary.

Mobility

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: The bike tour will start from Triangeln station

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Train (1 stop with local train to Triangeln station) + bikes

Additional information: Cycling experience is necessary.

Hyllie district: the climate-neutral building pledge

Join two of the leading local developers in a short walk through the new Hyllie district to find out more about their work with sustainable buildings and the local partnership for climate-neutral buildings 2030. This partnership gathers developers and other stakeholders in the construction industry who committed to be climate-neutral in all projects in Malmö by 2030.

Energy

Green Transition

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 16.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours

Location: Hyllie district

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Additional information: This is a walking tour.

Malmö: the inclusive and circular city

Visit Malmö's innovative social enterprises such as Yalla Trappan, enterprise for women entering the labour market, and the food rescue organisation Matmissionen providing employment, skills development trainings and essential services to support a more inclusive and sustainable city, including circularity solutions and other environmental benefits alongside strong social outcomes.

Social Inclusion

Circular Economy

Employment

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Locations:

- Yalla Trappan - von Rosens väg 1
- Matmissionen - Per Albin Hanssons väg 10-14

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Rental bus

Additional information: At the end of visit, the rental bus will bring you back to Malmö Arena.

Attractive and active: Malmö's recipe for a vibrant city

Join the City of Malmö team on this walking tour of the city centre looking at initiatives to create a city that is attractive for all ages and abilities promoting an active use of city spaces and a liveable, walkable and playful city.

Attractive cities

Outdoor activity

Attractive and active: Malmö's recipe for a vibrant city

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: The walking tour will start from Triangeln Station

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session 'Malmö Moment')

Transportation mode: Train (1 stop with local train to Triangeln station).

Additional information: This is a walking tour.

Eco-neighbourhood: exploring Augustenborg's climate adaptation

Visit the Augustenborg neighbourhood in Malmö which has been at the forefront of nature-based solutions and climate adaptation before those terms were even invented. Learn from over 20 years of experience in urban greening, stormwater management and sustainable regeneration in the neighbourhood.

Green Roofs

Climate Adaptation

Sustainable
Regeneration

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: Augustenborg neighborhood

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session 'Malmö Moment')

Transportation mode: Rental bus

Additional information: This is a walking tour.

At the end of visit, the rental bus will bring you back to Malmö Arena.

Sustainable regeneration of harbour areas

Visit Malmö's Western Harbour to learn from 25 years of sustainable urban regeneration and discover the current development work in the old shipyard site. You will also get the chance to look 25 years into the future in the Nyhamnen development area!

Urban Regeneration

Industrial areas

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: Western Harbour

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Rental bus

Additional information: This is a walking tour.

Circular Management of Resources

Experience the Malmö model for waste management, recycling, waste minimisation and energy recovery with SYSAV. Discover the current work to minimise waste and maximise recycling while visiting the unique large-scale pilot textiles' separation plant. Finally, find out more about the climate-neutrality plans by 2030!

Circular economy

Green Transition

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: Sysav Recycling Plant - Spillepengsgatan 13

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Rental bus

Additional information: Guided tour on foot of the recycling plant.

At the end of visit, the rental bus will bring you back to Malmö Arena.

Sharing for affordable and climate smart living

Sege park is a city district in transition. It's being build with the theme of "sharing for affordable and climate smart living". During this tour, you will see the newly built mobility hub, that is made in a circular way. You will also meet Drevet, a NGO operating in the area with a focus on testing and implementing sharing possibilities for the citizen.

Circular Economy

Sharing Economy

Climate Smart District

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: P-huset Sege Park, Köksvägen 3

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Rental bus

Additional information: This is a walking tour.

At the end of visit, the rental bus will bring you back to Malmö Arena.

Co-constructing a green and just neighborhood: Sydhavnen in Copenhagen

Cross the Öresund Bridge and take the chance to explore Copenhagen! In the Sydhavnen neighbourhood, you will learn more about how the principles of the green and just transition can be co-created by public administrations, local citizens, knowledge institutions and the private sector. Get to know how an Asset Based Community Development (ABCD) strategy has embraced the global challenges. Go behind the scenes of innovative solutions in urban refurbishment, and see how principles of circular economy and climate adaptation can go hand in hand with user-driven urban development.

Circular Economy

Participation

Attractive Cities

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 20.00 (approximate time)

Duration: 3 hours (excluding transfer time of around 50 minutes)

Location: Sydhavnen district

Train station in Copenhagen to start the visit: S-tog: Sjællør;

Train station in Copenhagen to end the visit : S-tog: Sydhavnen

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Train

Additional information: This is a walking tour.

During the years 2016-2019 the neighborhood participated in the URBACT network URBinclusion, find the results here.

Connecting the unconnected: create opportunities through digital education

Come discover the work of ReDI – School of Digital Integration, a non-profit tech school that provides free access to digital education, offering high-end tech and coding-classes, digital literacy training, as well as programs and workshops especially created for women, kids and teens. They focus on creating digital empowerment and on speeding-up job market integration for newcomers as well as locals without access to digital education or a professional network.

Digital

Social Inclusion

Employment

Connecting the unconnected: create opportunities through digital education

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: up to 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Location: Anckargripsgatan 3

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Transportation mode: Rental bus

Equal rights to the city

How can public spaces foster equality? Join this study visit to understand how to use a gender-sensitive approach in the design and use of urban public spaces. Get experience on observation tools to analyse the urban environment and reflect on how gender-responsive approaches can improve accessibility and security and positively influence socialisation and integration in the city.

Gender Equality

Urban Planning

Practical information

Time slot: Tuesday 29 August, from 14.30 to 17.30 (approximate time)

Duration: up to 2 hours (excluding transfer time)

Departure point: Malmö Arena (follow instructions after the plenary session ‘Malmö Moment’)

Additional information: This is a walking tour.