URBACT CITY FESTIVAL • MOBILITY SESSION

From plans to practice

Delivering urban mobility change through city action and cooperation

Five networks. Five implementation journeys. One honest conversation about what changed, what resisted - and what happens after the project ends.

EU Policy Lab on active and integrated mobility

- A bridge between EU policy priorities and practical city implementation

Aim

- To identify how cities can promote active mobility in practice
- To understand how active mobility can be better integrated with public transport and wider mobility systems
- To generate practical, transferable guidance for cities and managing authorities

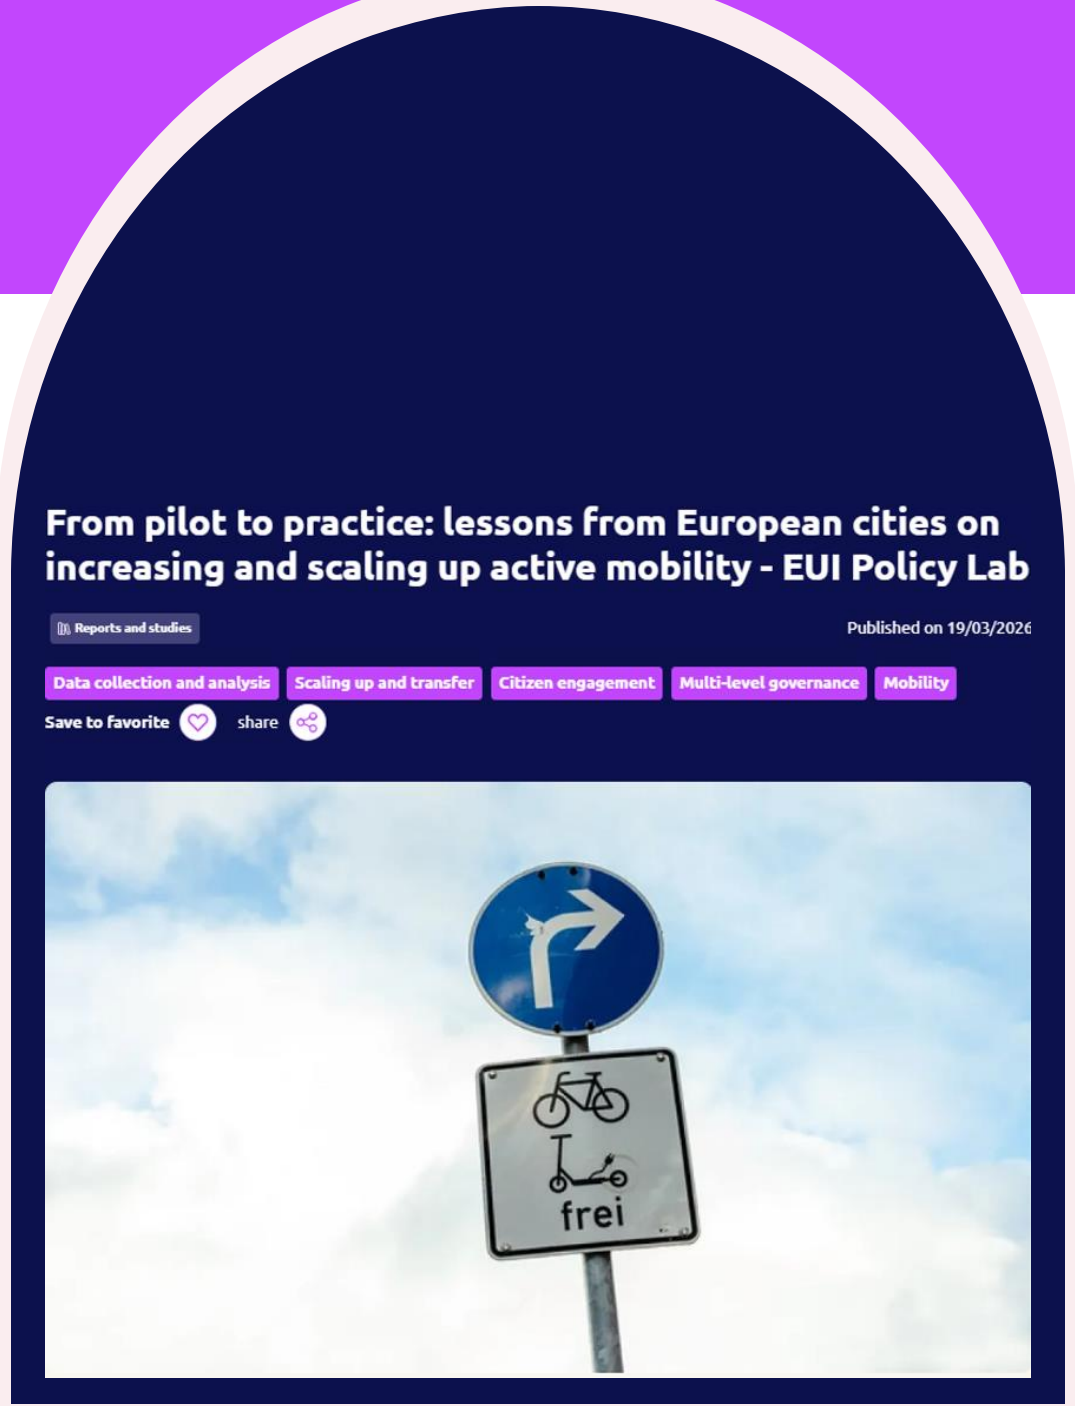

Process

- Desk research and project mapping across EUI, UIA and URBACT
- Questionnaires to shortlisted cities
- Thematic hearings with selected case studies
- Focus groups and an EU City Lab to validate and enrich findings

Outcomes

- Report capturing practical lessons, good practices, implementation insights and policy recommendations
- A portfolio of city-tested case studies
- Training kit
