

NETWORK4WORK

Connecting stakeholders for stronger local employment

OUR CHALLENGES

Different local realities, similar labour market pressures

Labour & skills shortages

Skills mismatches

Brain drain

Workforce transitions

Stakeholder coordination

OUR STORY

Transferring a good practice

Network4Work is an URBACT IV Transfer Network led by Nyíregyháza, Hungary. The network transfers and adapts the Employment Forum Good Practice developed in Nyíregyháza, helping partners develop stronger cooperation between local stakeholders to better address employment and labour market challenges.

THE GOOD PRACTICE

Nyíregyháza's Employment Forum model

A proven multi-stakeholder cooperation model that brings together key local actors to better understand and respond to employment and labour market challenges.

Network4Work partners are adapting the model to their own local contexts.

OUR APPROACH

Learning from proven practice – adapting to local realities

Through peer learning, local stakeholder involvement and practical testing, Network4Work partners explore how elements of Nyíregyháza's Good Practice can be adapted to their own local contexts and labour market needs.

OUR NETWORK

6 partners – 6 local contexts – 1 shared learning journey

Varberg, Sweden

Pop: 69,000

Nyíregyháza, Hungary

Pop: 117,000, Lead Partner & Good Practice City

SERDA, Bosnia and Herzegovina

Sarajevo Economic Region Development Agency

Stara Zagora, Bulgaria

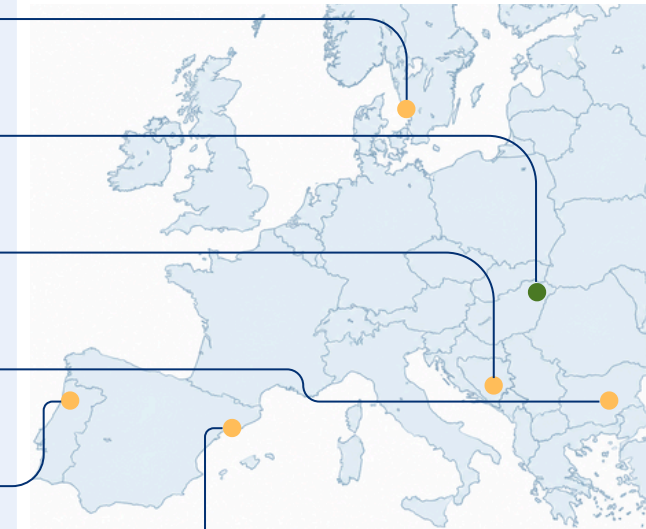

Pop: 121,000

Lousada, Portugal

Pop: 49,000

Vilanova i la Geltrú, Spain

Pop: 71,000

OUR JOURNEY

Proceeding systematically

UNDERSTAND

Nov 2025 – Aug 2026

Understand the Good Practice and local contexts, identify stakeholder needs and establish the foundations for successful transfer.

ADAPT

Sep 2026 – Aug 2027

Break the Good Practice into transferable elements, adapt them to local realities and test new approaches with local stakeholders.

RE-USE

Sep 2027 – Apr 2028

Consolidate the transfer, draw lessons and prepare for the continued use and further development of the adapted Good Practice.

FOLLOW US

Check out our news!

URBACT Network4Work website

Network4Work LinkedIn

Co-funded by the European Union
Interreg

1/11/2025 – 30/04/2028

EU funding: EUR 538,686.79
Total budget: EUR 690,577.51

urbact.eu/networks/network4work