Does your city have a solution that works?

Share your experience in the

URBACT Good Practice Call

5 DECEMBER 2016 - 31 MARCH 2017
Meeting Europe’s urban challenges together

All European cities face the same kinds of problems: poverty, social exclusion, environmental concerns... The list is long.

To help you meet your city’s challenges, URBACT is launching a new call to establish a pool of good practices in sustainable integrated urban development.

This Good Practice Call will enable your city to showcase solutions that can be understood, adapted and reused by cities all over Europe and beyond.

Does your city have a solution that works? Here’s how to share it!

Good Practice Call
Become an URBACT Good Practice City

Launch
5 December 2016

1. This is your chance to share and improve your good practices.
2. Submit your proposal(s) at www.urbact.eu/goodpracticecall

Submission Deadline:
31 March 2017

Your submission must include the application form and support materials presenting your good practice. You can submit more than one good practice.

Selection End May
2017

After review by an Assessment Panel, each selected good practice will be awarded the title of “URBACT Good Practice City.”

Who is eligible?
Cities and other public authorities in all EU Member States plus Norway and Switzerland.

What kind of practices?
Transferable good practices that uphold URBACT’s key values:
- Sustainable urban living (economic, social, environmental)
- An integrated, participative approach

Selection criteria
- Relevance for other cities
- Compatibility with URBACT’s principles
- Evidence of effectiveness – documentation and results
- Transferability, including cost and long-term potential

The end result:
better cities and a brighter future.
Meeting Europe’s urban challenges together

Good Practice Call

All European cities face the same kinds of problems: poverty, social exclusion, environmental concerns... The list is long.

To help you meet your city’s challenges, URBACT is launching a new call to establish a pool of good practices in sustainable integrated urban development.

This Good Practice Call will enable your city to showcase solutions that can be understood, adapted and reused by cities all over Europe and beyond.

Does your city have a solution that works? Here’s how to share it!

1. Opportunity to share in a Transfer Network

Selection
Submission Launch
Deadline: 31 March 2017
5 December 2016
End May 2017

This is your chance to share and improve your good practices.

Submit your proposal(s) at www.urbact.eu/goodpracticecall

Your submission must include the application form and support materials presenting your good practice. You can submit more than one good practice.

2. Becoming an advocate for change

Urbact city festival

All URBACT Good Practice Cities will be featured at a showcase event in Tallinn, on the 4th and 5th of October 2017. An opportunity for your city to increase its visibility in the European arena.

3. Promotional actions

Selected good practices will be highlighted in a series of promotional actions: presentation in major URBACT publications, a dedicated webpage, exposure through the National URBACT Points, videos, etc.

4. EU Communication Campaign

5. Opportunity to share in a Transfer Network

Refine and improve your own good methodology

Lead and mentor the transfer of your good practice

Sharing good practices

Building partnerships around proven solutions

6. Sharing good practices

Gain wider recognition

Ongoing promotion

7. The end result: better cities and a brighter future.

A network of cities interested in transferring good practices

Refine and improve your own good methodology

Gain wider recognition

Ongoing promotion

Building partnerships around proven solutions

Lead and mentor the transfer of your good practice

Sharing good practices

Transferable good practices that uphold URBACT’s key values:

- Cities and other public authorities in all EU Member States plus Norway and Switzerland.
- Sustainable urban living (economic, social, environmental)
- An integrated, participative approach
- Relevance for other cities
- Compatibility with URBACT’s principles
- Evidence of effectiveness – documentation and results
- Transferability, including cost and long-term potential

Call for Transfer Networks September 2017

After review by an Assessment Panel, each selected good practice will be awarded the title of “URBACT Good Practice City.”
Founded in 2002, URBACT is a European Territorial Cooperation programme fostering sustainable integrated urban development in cities across EU Member States, Norway and Switzerland. URBACT is an instrument of the Cohesion Policy, co-financed by the European Commission (ERDF) and Member/Partner States. Through networking, exchanges of experiences, and capturing and sharing knowledge, it supports urban policy-makers and practitioners at all levels of governance.

We are looking forward to adding value to your good practices!